

Break Into a Hallelujah

Craig Avins, T. W. Hale, Allison Speer

When I think about the blood You shed
How you took the cross meant for me instead
Makes me break into a hallelujah once again

When I think about Your nail scared hands
How they pierced them through for my every sin
Makes me break into a hallelujah once again

Chorus

Hallelujah what ransom, hallelujah no condemnation
Purchased by Your blood, covered by Your love
Makes me break into a hallelujah once again

And when I think about Your final breath
How You suffered such a cruel death
Makes me break into a hallelujah once again

In a cold dark tomb, they laid You down
Then morning came You rose up and came out
Makes me break into a hallelujah once again

Repeat chorus

Hallelujah what ransom, hallelujah no condemnation
Purchased by Your blood, covered by Your love
Makes me break into a hallelujah
Makes me break into a hallelujah
Makes me break into a hallelujah once again
