KISSED THE EARTH

Writers: Allison Durham Speer, Jeff Thurman, Becky Thurman

Publishers: Meadowgreen Music/ASCAP & EMI Christian Publishing/ASCAP

To some He was a wonder
Still others were wondering why
Their needs demanded answers
He would be their need's supply
The captive and the conquered
The broken and the blind
Turned their hearts to Bethlehem
And put their hope in Christ

No pomp or splendor Gentle and tender Their coming King came as a babe

(CHORUS)

Was the wind heard to whisper
Messiah has come?
Did the praise of the ocean
Resound like a drum?
When shepherds bent down to their sheep
Did stars wake mountains from their sleep?
When god almighty from heaven on high
Kissed the earth with a baby's cry

The manger made Him common
So common could draw neigh
While Heaven crowned their prophecy
With a lullaby
The weakest and the poorest
Strength and wealth to find
Seek out Young Yeshua
Mortal and divine

Lamb of Zion Judah's Lion The coming King came as a babe

Repeat chorus